MEET YOUR EYRA VOLUNTEERS & STAFF

It truly takes a village to make EYRA possible. We are so very blessed by the many volunteers and staff members who give of themselves so generously—not only during each rodeo, but also in the days, weeks, and even months leading up to every season. For many of them, the work never really ends, even in the off-season.

So much happens behind the scenes that many never see. From planning the next season's schedule, to preparing the arena, ordering stock, selecting year-end awards, and organizing a Finals event that families will remember for years to come, EYRA depends on the hearts, hands, and dedication of so many faithful people.

Their long hours, hard work, and servant hearts help create something special for our contestants and their families. They may not always be recognized, and most are not paid for what they do, but the impact they make is felt in every rodeo, every memory, and every blessing shared along the way.

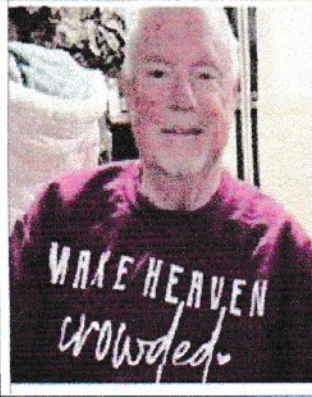

This weekend, if you see one of these volunteers or staff members, please take a moment to thank them. A kind word and a grateful heart mean more than you know. EYRA would not be what it is without them.
